ELBOW PARK TENNIS CLUB PRIVACY NOTICE, MEMBERSHIP CONDITIONS AND CONSENT

I/we agree to abide by all Elbow Park Tennis Club rules and bylaws. I/we and my/our heirs, executors and administrators agree to release EPTC & The Glencoe Club, its committees, members, employees and representatives from all claims and liabilities, and not sue them for personal injury, death, property damages or losses that I/we might suffer in connection with Club activities on or around the Club's premises, even when occasioned by their negligence.

Elbow Park Tennis Club is committed to the privacy of your personal information. Any and all personal information collected is kept in strict confidence.

Elbow Park Tennis Club collects the minimum amount of personal information in the application form to process your application and fees and to notify you of club news and events. The Club also posts name and contact information in a Membership Listing available for pick-up at the Clubhouse. This listing is distributed to EPTC members only and is to be used for the purpose of facilitating contact with other members. Members are prohibited from providing the list to anyone who is not a Member or designate of EPTC or using the list for other purposes, such as marketing or solicitation. However, members should be aware that, beyond the sanctions for misuse, EPTC cannot guarantee that this information will not be disclosed inappropriately to others beside members.

EPTC does not disclose personal information of members to other clubs, organizations, businesses, or individuals except as required by law or with your express consent.

Please check the box below to verify consent of these collection, use and disclosure arrangements:

- I have read the conditions above and consent to the collection, use, and disclosure of my personal application information under the conditions and for the purposes indicated in this notice.
